Mayor Cruikshank congratulated Gerald Wilburn, Coach of Oak Hill Soccer Team, winning the West Virginia AAAA State Championship. She also would like to wish everyone a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

Visitor's Comments

Wes Toney came to introduce himself to Council. He is running for the 15th Circuit Judge position In May 2026. He grew up in Fayetteville and is asking for our support.

Miranda Weeks is the great granddaughter of the Sodder family whose kids were supposedly burned up in their house fire. She said there was no possible way the kids would burn up in the fire since no bones were found. She would like to plant a flower garden in town in memory of the kids and needs a place for it. She will raise money for it. She would like to put it at Janutalo Park with a plaque in memory of George and Jenny Sodder. The mayor mentioned having spoken to some of the family about honoring the children at the children's memorial at the park with the centerpiece featuring the flowers from the Sodder family. The mayor said council will consider the request with the board and will get back in touch with her.
